University level and college special camp inauguration program

Gondwana University Level and College Special Camp organized by Sardar Patel College on Saturday. February 4, 2017 to Friday The main theme of the camp is "Clean and Cashless India". A total of 200 volunteers from 100 colleges under Gondwana University, Gadchiroli and 100 college special camps participated in this camp. The inauguration ceremony was held in Thatta. On the occasion, the president of the program, Shantaram Potdukhe, the principal of the law college, Dr. Anjali Hastak, Inaugural Dr. Mrs. Shriram Rokade, Sarpanch of Visapur. Dr. Ritatai Jilte, Principal of the College. R. P. Ingole, Program Officer of National Service Scheme Prof. Kuldeep Gond, Shri. Ashok There, Shri. Vijay Vaidya was present on the occasion.

The president of the program, Dr. Anjali Hastak, while guiding the volunteers on cleanliness, said that "the area where we live should be clean and at the same time everyone's mind should be clean". He also said that volunteers should work for transparency in financial transactions and for people to focus on cashless transactions.

The inaugural Dr. Shriram Rokade guided us through the narrative of his life experiences on issues like addiction, old age problems, student problems, corruption, mobile abuse etc. Volunteers also vowed to stay away from addiction.

Mrs. Sarpanch of Visapur. In his mind, Ritatai Jilte praised the work done by the camp students of last year's National Service Scheme and encouraged the students. He also introduced the problem of Visapur to the volunteers and hoped that the awareness program conducted by the volunteers would reduce the severity of the problem.

Principal Dr. R. P. Ingole, in his introductory remarks, evaluated the college by the NAC Committee, Bangalore, in which the college received an 'A' rating from NAC. It discussed the work done by the National Service Planning Department. The NAC committee had paid a visit to the adopted village Visapur. He urged the volunteers to take the message of cleanliness to the people. During the camp, the volunteers were trained in cashless workshops to provide training to the people of the village and also gave guidance on the benefits of cashless transactions.

On 5th and 6th February 2017

The students of this two day National Service Scheme completed the construction of 80 to 90 meter dyke in two days with a view to supply water to the people of Visapur village. This dam diverted the water of Wardha river towards the village and increased the water level of borewells and wells in the village, thus reducing the severity of drinking water problem in Visapur village.
