ECO-FRIENDLY GANESHA MAKING COMPETITION 2022

FESTIVITY & FAITH with RESPONSIBILITY

Date: 23 August 2022

“Towards a step to save mother nature”

Ganesh Chaturthi is all around the corner and Sardar Patel College Alumni Association, Chandrapur had organized an Eco-friendly Ganesh idol-making competition for all the students of college (Senior & Junior) to promote sustainability and to save our environment. The demand for eco-friendly Ganesh idols has increased significantly because of the long-term environmental impacts of the festival such as pollution of water bodies, Destruction of aquatic life and agriculture farmland, breeding of mosquitoes and pathogens that cause several diseases in polluted water, light and sound pollution.

Considering the above environmental impacts, it is the responsibility of the Sardar Patel College Alumni Association to make sure our festivities do not harm the environment. A few steps are all it takes to celebrate the festivity and faith with responsibility.

25 students participated in the competition with fervour. Ganesh Murti were prepared using sustainable material like clay, paper, seeds, vegetables, fruits, etc; The competition was judged by eminent artist Sudarshan Barapatre and Atharva Barapatre. The prizes were announced and Barapatre Sir guided the students in making of the idols. First prize was bagged by Bhavesh Jadhav, Second prize was bagged by Akash Madavi, third prize went to Sujal Govardhan. Consolation prizes were given to Bhumika Mankar, Mansi Vishwakarma, Prathmesh, Sahil Kodape, Sumit Kodape, Saloni Baware. Secretary, of Sarvodaya Shikshan Mandal Shri Prashant Potdukhe, Jt. Don't pollute Environment by using chemicals

Being Eco-friendly

Every Bappa gives same blessings....
Why choose Chemical, colourful Bappa?

Don't go towards show-off...
I am in your feelings
not in chemicals

Say no to chemicals

Find me in nature's own clay, chemicals
are not important for me!
